MEMORANDUM FOR BATTLE STAFF NCO COURSE STUDENTS

SUBJECT: BSNCOG Student Information Letter

1. The Battle Staff NCO Course (BSNCOG) is the only course offered by the US Army to prepare staff sergeants through master sergeant for duty as Staff NCO's in battalion and higher-level staff positions. This is an extremely fast paced and time intensive branch immaterial course concentrating on the duties, responsibilities, and coordination of staff sections, regardless of the NCOs functional area of assignment.
2. The Battle Staff NCO Course is conducted in accordance with TRADOC, the NCO Leadership Center of Excellence, and the approved current CMP/POIs. Battle Staff is a resident course conducted in a computer-based environment. Students are encouraged to research and study the appropriate regulations that cover the lessons, as this will greatly assist them during the course. Courseware is located in USASMA Blackboard (<https://usasma.ncoes.army.mil/>). Course graduation requirements are found in the Individual Student Assessment Plan issued during the reception and integration counseling session with an instructor. Upon successful completion of the course, students will be qualified for award of the ASI "2S" by their command.
3. Course Documentation: The following items must be provided by the on Day 1, digital copies are required. Failure to provide documentation will result in dis-enrollment.
 - a. Military orders (DD Form 1610)
 - b. Completed TASS Pre-execution checklist (only required for COMPO-1 active component, walk-on students or late reservations) – if ATRRS PRCL was completed, this is not required.)
